bob Maureen McNeil has been a professional Youth Development Professional since 1994. She's worked with many different youth serving agencies leading and directing programs, including camp settings, outdoor adventure trips (canoeing, back packing, & rock climbing). She's also worked with outreach programs targeting inner city youth, migrant worker families, refugee students, and homeless youth. bob directed the LGBTQ youth center in Salt Lake City for three years and designed the volunteer program for the Spokane Regional Health District. She is a Certified Professional Coach and currently has her own business coaching youth workers and agencies reach their potential. bob is passionate about youth and loves helping to create healthy spaces and relationships for young people to thrive.
