

Youth Work Methods

Training of Trainers (TOT)

San Jose, CA
March 26-28, 2018

Location:

The training will be held at:

RAFT (Resource Area for Technology)
 1355 Ridder Park Drive
 San Jose, CA 95131

$1,725 covers tuition, 6 meals
 (breakfast and lunch each day)
 (INVOICE WILL BE SENT; NO PAYMENT NEEDED NOW).

Participant travel, room, and board costs must be arranged and covered by training participants.*

4-week distance; 3-day live; 1-week distance – Our most intensive course prepares participants to lead the 10 item-aligned Youth Work Methods professional development workshops. The TOT begins with 4 weeks of distance coursework comparable to a college-level course. Participants should expect to spend 6-8 hours per week on coursework. The TOT culminates in an intensive 3-day live workshop. Finally, there is one last week of distance work to wrap-up. Materials that participants receive include a binder with training agendas for all the item-aligned workshops as well as a set of 10 Methods guidebooks. Due to the nature and rigor of the course, experience with the Youth Work Methods as well as training experience is highly recommended.

“The trainers were energetic, genuine, personable, and knowledgeable.”

“I believe that a supportive environment was created, starting with the facilitators and carried further by the group of participants. A valuable experience.”

“Overall this is by far one of the best training events I've ever attended.”

“This has been a game-changing experience for me. I am encouraged by the authentic nature and humanity of the Methods as well as the format of the training.”
